c'es t magnifique! It was an evening of Parisian glamour and opulence at the Pacific Pride Foundation's Royal Ball. The third annual gala, designed by the distinguished Merryll Brown Events, was held at the Bacara Resort & Spa, where supporters of the LGBT community dined on French fare—think coq au vin and croque madame—prepared by master chef David Reardon. With 650 guests, including celebrities such as Jane Lynch, the gala raised $250,000, making it the largest fund-raiser in the organization's 35-year history. Photo: Isaac Hernandez
