'80s FLASHBACK Tuxedo-clad bon vivants and other glamorous guests took a walk down memory lane at NIPPER'S nightclub, the decade of decadence's premier Montecito hot spot, which was revived for a single night at Los Arroyos. Partygoers donned black-and-white attire and enjoyed caviar, chocolate cake, and, of course, lots of bubbly, while DJ Michael Smith played '80s New Wave and pop music. All profits from the evening benefitted UNITY SHOPPE, a 90-year-old Santa Barbara nonprofit organization that helps families in need.

SEASIDE STUNNER A colorful crowd gathered at the Coral Casino to celebrate the PACIFIC PRIDE FOUNDATION'S ROYAL BALL, which raised funds for counseling and recovery services for the gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender community. The over-the-top evening was produced by Merryll Brown Events and AOO Events and featured celebrity chef Cat Cora's pancetta-wrapped shrimp, mini Asian steak tacos, and more. Entertainment by flamenco dancer Timo Nuñez, singer Frenchie Davis, Cirque du Soleil performers, and music by DJ Derek Monteiro topped off the glitzy gala.
